the most revealing book ever published on mao perhaps on any dictator in history professor andrew j nathan columbia university from 1954 until mao zedong's death twenty two years later dr li zhisui was the chinese ruler's personal physician which put him in daily and increasingly intimate contact with mao and his inner circle in the private life of chairman mao dr li vividly reconstructs his extraordinary experience at the center of mao's decadent imperial court dr li clarifies numerous long standing puzzles such as the true nature of mao's feelings toward the united states and the soviet union he describes mao's deliberate rudeness toward khrushchev and reveals the actual catalyst of nixon's historic visit here are also surprising details of mao's personal depravity we see him dependent on barbiturates and refusing to wash dress or brush his teeth and the sexual politics of his court to millions of chinese mao was more god than man but for dr li he was all too human dr li s intimate account of this lecherous paranoid tyrant callously indifferent to the suffering of his people will forever alter our view of chairman mao and of china under his rule praise for the private life of chairman mao from now on no one will be able to pretend to understand chairman mao s place in history without reference to this revealing account professor lucian pye massachusetts institute of technology dr li does for mao what the physician lord moran s memoir did for winston churchill turns him into a human being here is mao unveiled eccentric demanding suspicious unregretful lascivious and unfailingly fascinating our view of mao will never be the same again ross terrill author of china in our time an extraordinarily intimate portrait of mao dr li portrays mao s imperial court as a place of boundless decadence licentiousness selfishness relentless toadying and cutthroat political intrigue richard bernstein the new york times one of the most provocative books on mao to appear since the publication of edgar snow s red star over china paul g pickowicz the wall street journal

this volume presents elite conflicts and political controversies in china from 1895 to 1978 as rooted in two diametrically opposed visions of leadership and political authority a radical charismatic model that instills absolute authority in the single leader whose will guides the polity and whose word is the basis of policy formulation versus an institutional model in which authority inheres in organization and where collective leadership and decision making govern the political realm the former model in modern chinese history entailed a leader principle and personality cult that began with sun yatsen and Chiang Kaishek in the nationalist party kmt and reached its peak with the leadership cult of chinese communist party ccp chairman mao zedong especially during the 1966 1976 great proletarian cultural revolution the latter model with its emphasis on collective leadership jiti lingdao and administrative rationalism began as a reaction among early members of the ccp against the promotion of the sun and Chiang leadership cults and became a central governing principle in the communist party that served as official leadership doctrine beginning with the formation of the party in 1921 while tensions over leadership issues were relatively muted in the pre 1949 period and early 1950s of ccp history as an apparent compromise was reached in which from 1943 onward a cult of the leader was promoted for propaganda purposes but with collegial decision making governing inner party decision making the mid to late 1950s saw this compromise among the top leadership come under increasing strain and finally break down devoted to a fundamentally different vision of a socialist china from other top leaders on a number of economic social and political fronts mao zedong pushed his domination of the policy process that ultimately provoked a wholesale assault on the ccp apparatus throughout the country while the leader cult reached mythic proportions during the cultural revolution confronted by the possibility of civil war and generally opposed to the takeover of the polity by the radical gang of four led by his wife Jiang Qing by the mid 1970s the aging great leader acquiesced to the rebuilding of the ccp along traditional institutional lines

the series mao s road to power consisting of translations of mao zedong s writings from 1912 to 1949 provides abundant documentation in his own words on his life and thought as well as on developments in china during the pre 1949 period this penultimate volume in the series volume 9 covers the period from the japanese surrender through the chinese communist party s strategic defense during the civil war august 1945 to june 1947 in 1971 lin biao mao zedong s closest comrade in arms and chosen successor was killed in a mysterious plane crash in mongolia this book challenges the official explanation that lin was fleeing to the soviet union after an unsuccessful coup attempt this study investigates the entire process of deviant labeling under the leadership of chairman mao between 1950 and 1978 through the use of life history materials that include autobiographies and memoirs published in both english and chinese the causes of the labeling the lives of the deviants and the consequences of deviant labels on individuals family members and significant others are thoroughly analyzed it documents the impacts of labeling on the self concept of deviants and the creation of a new socially and politically defined deviant class the enemies of the people in mao s china
